

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| List of figures | vii |
| Acknowledgements | xi |
| Contributors | xiii |
| Foreword | xv |
| | |
| PART I THE GREAT WAR AND THE BRITISH EMPIRE | 1 |
| | |
| 1 The Great War and the British Empire: conflict, culture and memory Michael J.K. Walsh and Andrekos Varnava | 3 |
| 2 The First World War and the cultural, political and environmental transformation of the British Empire John M. MacKenzie | 23 |
| | |
| PART II IMPERIAL RESPONSES, IDENTITIES AND CULTURE | 39 |
| | |
| 3 The ‘Kaiser Cartoon’, 1914–1918: a transnational comic art genre Richard Scully | 41 |
| 4 Musical entertainment and the British Empire, 1914–1918 Emma Hanna | 63 |
| 5 “We New Zealanders pride ourselves most of all upon loyalty to our Empire, our country, our flag”: internalised Britishness and national character in New Zealand’s First World War propaganda Gregory Hynes | 81 |
| 6 Heligoland: between the lion and the eagle Jan Asmussen | 103 |
| 7 Imperial Austerlitz: the Singapore Strategy and the culture of victory, 1917–1924 Wm. Matthew Kennedy | 117 |
| | |
| PART III ART, MEMORY AND FORGETTING | 127 |
| | |
| 8 ‘Our warrior Brown Brethran’: identity and difference in images of non-white soldiers serving with the British army in British art of the First World War Jonathan Black | 129 |

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 9 | The imagining of Mesopotamia/Iraq in British art in the aftermath of the Great War Tim Buck | 151 |
| 10 | Spaces of conflict and ambivalent attachments: Irish artists visualise the Great War Nuala C. Johnson | 163 |
| 11 | Empire and nation in Canadian and Australian First World War exhibitions, 1917–1922 Jennifer Wellington | 185 |
| 12 | A tribute to the British Empire: Lowell Thomas's With Allenby in Palestine and Lawrence in Arabia Justin Fantauzzo | 199 |
| 13 | An architecture of imperial ambivalence: the Patcham Chattri Tim Barringer | 215 |
| 14 | The Great War's impact on imperial Delhi: commemorating wartime sacrifice in the colonial built environment David A. Johnson | 249 |
| 15 | Sounds from the trenches: Australian composers and the Great War Andrew Harrison | 265 |
| 16 | 'Brutalised' veterans and tragic anti-heroes: masculinity, crime and post-war trauma in Boardwalk Empire and Peaky Blinders Evan Smith | 279 |
| 17 | The politics of forgetting the Cypriot Mule Corps Andrekos Varnava | 291 |
| | Index | 305 |