

CONTENTS

Contributors vii

- CHAPTER 1 Punishment and Democratic Theory: Resources for a Better Penal Politics 1
Albert W. Dzur, Ian Loader, and Richard Sparks
- CHAPTER 2 Democratic Politics in an Age of Mass Incarceration 18
Rebecca U. Thorpe
- CHAPTER 3 Civic Punishment 33
R. A. Duff and S. E. Marshall
- CHAPTER 4 Playing Fair with Imprisonment 60
Richard Dagger
- CHAPTER 5 A Democratic Theory of Imprisonment 84
Peter Ramsay
- CHAPTER 6 Why Greater Public Participation in Criminal Justice? 114
Christopher Bennett
- CHAPTER 7 Punitive Restoration: Giving the Public a Say
on Sentencing 140
Thom Brooks
- CHAPTER 8 After Penal Populism: Punishment, Democracy, and Utopian Method 162
Lynne Copson

- CHAPTER 9 Liberty, Justice, and All: The Folly of Doing Good
by Stealth 187
David A. Green
- CHAPTER 10 Mass Incarceration and Public Opinion on Crime and Justice: From Democratic Theory to Method and Reality 213
Elizabeth R. Turner
- CHAPTER 11 A Trade-Off Between Safety and Democracy?
An Empirical Investigation of Prison Violence and Inmate Self-Governance 238
Amy E. Lerman and Vesla Mae Weaver
- CHAPTER 12 Violent Crime, Constitutional Frameworks, and Mass Publics 266
Lisa L. Miller
- CHAPTER 13 Democracy All the Way Down—Deliberative Democracy and Criminal Law: The Case of Social Protests 298
Roberto Gargarella

Index 329